

BUCHANAN INGERSOLL & ROONEY PC
Creditors' Rights & Bankruptcy Attorney - Buffalo Office

The Buffalo office has an immediate opening for a Creditors' Rights and Bankruptcy Attorney with minimum 10 years of experience with aspects of creditors' rights' work, including commercial litigation, commercial foreclosures, replevins, out-of-court restructurings, bankruptcy motions, bankruptcy litigation, debtor-in-possession financing, acquisition of assets of bankruptcy or distressed entities, cross-border insolvencies and the negotiation of bankruptcy terms for new loans and intercreditor agreements, and creditor's rights issues that arise during commercial and other transitions. Excellent academic achievement and law firm experience required. Must be admitted in New York. Client contact and significant responsibility are provided within this exciting practice area. Buchanan Ingersoll & Rooney provides competitive salaries. Qualified candidates should apply directly to Laurie Lenigan, Director of Legal Recruiting, Buchanan Ingersoll & Rooney at laurie.lenigan@bipc.com. All applications must be accompanied by a cover letter and resume. EOE.