

Tax Associate: Buchanan Ingersoll & Rooney PC

The Washington, DC office has an immediate opening for a Tax Associate. U.S. tax experience required; international tax experience and working knowledge of a foreign language a plus. This unique position entails analyzing, editing and redrafting as needed, material on foreign laws and regulations, principally but not exclusively in the tax area, written in English by foreign practitioners, for a national publishing house. The job requires excellent writing and editing skills, along with a willingness to learn about foreign tax regimes and do research to monitor developments. Only qualified persons who are willing to embark on a non-conventional legal path should apply online through our listing at LawCruit. All applications must be accompanied by a cover letter, resume, transcript and writing sample. All questions should be directed to Donna J. Nolan, Manager of Legal Recruiting, at donna.nolan@bipc.com. EOE.

Qualified candidates should apply online through our website at https://lawcruit.micronapps.com/sup/v2/lc_supp_app_frm.aspx?lawfirm=113&id=0.