

Member Organization News

- Baker & McKenzie LLP and Norton Rose Fulbright LLP were among the top 10 employers for LGBT inclusion in the United Kingdom.
- K&L Gates LLP was named the No. 1 firm for diversity in Portland.
- Attorneys from Microsoft Corp. spoke about strategies for inclusion of lawyers with disabilities at an event hosted by Baker & Hosteler.
- Sidley Austin LLP received an award for excellence in diversity from Allstate Insurance Company.
- The following LCLD Member organizations publicly responded and, in some cases, had lawyers working pro bono following the immigration ban:
  - Akin, Gump, Hauer & Feld LLP
  - Bank of America
  - Davis, Polk & Wardwell LLP
  - Facebook Inc.
  - General Electric
  - Hogan Lovells US LLP
  - Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton LLP
  - Mayer Brown LLP
  - Microsoft Corp.
  - Paul, Weiss, Rifking, Wharton & Garrison LLP
  - Starbucks Coffee Company
  - The Coca-Cola Company
  - The Procter & Gamble Co.
  - Wells Fargo & Co.
- Prior to the immigration ban, several LCLD Member law firms reported increased interest in pro bono from their lawyers:
  - Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP
  - Covington & Burling LLP
  - Dentons US LLP
  - Morrison & Foerster LLP
  - O'Melveny & Myers LLP
  - Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP • Winston & Strawn LLP
  - Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP
  - Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP
  - Vinson & Elkins LLP